

Through It All

We've laughed, we've cried, we've fought, we've grown,

Through every high and low we've known.

Yet hand in hand, we've stayed so tight,

Our love the flame, our bond the light.

No trial too great, no night too long,

With you, my love, I'm standing strong.

For every tear, for every test,

You are the one my heart loves best.
